AMENDED ORDER

Kauffman, J.

January 3, 2000

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on the Complaint of Worldsport Networks Limited (“Worldsport”) against Defendants Artinternet S.A. and Cedric Loison (“Defendants”).

Defendants have made the following admissions to this Court:

1. Defendants admit that they have no right to use Worldsport, Worldsports, worldsport.com, worldsports.com, worldsport.org, worldsports.org, worldsport.net or worldsports.net or any other similar word, name or term as Defendants’ marks, domain name, or in connection with the advertising or promotion of their goods, services or web sites.

2. Defendants also admit that they registered, used and offered to sell the domain name worldsports.com and such actions constitute infringement of Plaintiff’s WORLDSPORT.COM trademark and unfair competition with Plaintiff and create a likelihood of confusion among consumers and irreparably harmed Plaintiff.

In light of the above admissions, having read the pleadings, Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction and Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and the supporting affidavits and papers, and having held a hearing on Plaintiff’s Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order on February

23, 1999, is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, without objection, that:

1. Defendants, all persons acting for, with, by or through them, and their Internet Service Providers (“Defendant Group”) having notice of this Order by personal service, e-mail, or otherwise are permanently enjoined and restrained from:

a) using in any manner Worldsport, Worldsports, worldsport.com or worldsports.com, worldsport.org or worldsports.org, worldsport.net or worldsports.net and any other similar word, name or term;

b) using Worldsport, Worldsports, worldsport.com or worldsports.com, worldsport.org or worldsports.org, worldsport.net or worldsports.net and any other similar word, name or term as their domain name, in buried code or metatags on their home page or web pages, in connection with the retrieval of data or information, on other goods or services, or in connection with the advertising or promotion of their goods, services or web sites;

c) selling or offering for sale the web site www.worldsports.com and the domain name worldsports.com or any other similar web sites or domain names;

d) otherwise representing or engaging in conduct which is likely to cause consumers to erroneously believe or be confused about whether Defendants’ goods and/or services are in any way affiliated, connected, associated, sponsored and/or approved by Worldsport;

e) otherwise diminishing Worldsport’s goodwill.

2. Defendant Group are permanently enjoined and restrained from claiming the right to use the domain name worldsports.com or any other similar word, name or term on the Internet and within three (3) days of this Order shall submit a copy of this Order to Network Solutions, Inc. (“NSI”) by e-mail and by overnight mail.

3. NSI shall remove Artinternet’s registration of the domain name worldsports.com and shall register the domain name worldsports.com to Plaintiff.

4. Defendant Group shall submit a copy of this Order and direct in writing all publishers of directories or lists, including Internet search engines, in which Defendants' use of Worldsport, Worldsports, worldsport.com, worldsports.com or any similar word, name or term appears, to delete references to such words, names or terms from their public databases, search engine directories, directory assistance and from directories in which said names and marks are to appear, and to delete all forwarding or "cache memory" or storage mechanisms referencing worldsports.com.

5. Defendants shall file with the Court and serve upon Worldsport's counsel within thirty (30) days after entry of this Order a report in writing and under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendants have complied with the requirements of this Order. Defendants also shall file with the Court and serve upon Worldsport and Worldsport's counsel a report in writing and under oath setting forth their compliance with this Order at any time that any Defendant registers a domain name with any registrar in any top-level domain.

6. Defendants shall post this Order on their web sites and give notice thereof to all of their customers, correspondents, members and subscribers.

This Court retains jurisdiction over this matter to the extent necessary to enforce the terms and conditions of this Order.
